KUALA LUMPUR, March 13 (Bernama) - The people have been urged to put aside politics and help in efforts to find Malaysia Airlines (MAS) flight MH370.

PAS youth deputy chief Nik Mohamad Abduh Nik Abdul Aziz said the missing aircraft has to be addressed together as it is national issue.

"Its not the time for politics. We have to pray together and refrain from critcising the search and rescue operation," he told reporters at parliament lobby, here Thursday.

Nik Mohamad Abduh, who is also the Member of Parliament for Pasir Mas, said politics should not stop government and opposition leaders from praying together.

"There is no boundary for Muslims to pray to Allah. Everybody can join in prayers whether they are organised by BN (Barisan Nasional) or by the opposition," he added.
