KUALA LUMPUR, March 16 (Bernama) -- Federal Territories Minister Datuk Seri Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor today rapped opposition leader Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim, saying that Anwar cares only for his own personal agenda.

He said Anwar had criticised Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak for not answering questions from the media during yesterday's press conference on the latest status of the missing Malaysia Airlines Flight MH370.

"For Anwar, whatever we do is wrong. I'm sure the prime minister left without answering any of the reporters' questions because he did not want to add confusion to the situation.

"He (Anwar) did not understand...he would just pick up on every little thing for his own political benefit. That's the problem," Tengku Adnan, who is also Umno secretary-general told reporters after opening the Convention on Future Direction of the Malays organised by Bandar Tun Razak Umno here today.

An online news portal today quoted Anwar as having criticised Najib for not answering any questions at the press conference yesterday.

The portal also quoted Anwar as saying: "It is the first press conference by the Prime Minister, but what took place was a speech delivered by him. No questions were allowed."
