KUALA LUMPUR, March 25 (Bernama) -- Malaysia appreciates the support of countries in the region in searching for the Malaysia Airlines flight MH370 which had ended in the southern Indian Ocean.

"Malaysia appreciates the support of its regional friends," Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said on Twitter Tuesday.

Najib also shared the tweet from Indonesian President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono which stated: "We convey our deepest condolences to the people of Malaysia and Prime Minister Najib Tun Razak over this tragedy."

Over at his blog, Najib had posted summaries and pictures on his involvement throughout the efforts to trace the plane.

Last night, Najib announced that data released by AAIB and Inmarsat satellite's new analysis had concluded that the missing Boeing 777-200ER had ended in the southern Indian Ocean.

The ill-fated flight with 227 passengers and 12 crew took off from the KL International Airport at 12.41 am on March 8 for Beijing, but went off the radar an hour later.
