KUALA LUMPUR, March 25 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has expressed his gratitude to the people involved in the search for the missing Malaysia Airlines (MAS) flight MH370.

Najib in his speech at the opening of the Offshore Technology Conference Asia 2014 here on Tuesday, offered his gratitude to the military and civilian personnel from Malaysia and around the world who continued to work night and day in the search for flight MH370, its crew and passengers.

"It is the passengers, the crew and their families who are foremost in our thoughts and prayers," he added.

Yesterday, the prime minister announced findings which indicated the flight ended in the south Indian Ocean.

The Beijing-bound jetliner disappeared about an hour after taking off from the KL International Airport at 12.41am on March 8.

It was scheduled to arrive in Beijing at 6.30am the same day.
