Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim today said he did not rule out withdrawing from contesting the PKR presidency in the upcoming party polls.

The party de facto leader said that he did not discount the possibility of pulling out of the race after taking into consideration the obstacles he might face.

Anwar (pic, top left) said either he or his wife, Datin Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail, would withdraw with the other leading the party.

"We are allowed to withdraw. It is either me or my wife who will pull out," Anwar told a press conference at the party headquarters in Tropicana today. – April 16, 2014.
