KOTA KINABALU, May 10 (Bernama) - Umno members must be bold in making a transformation for the common good and to strengthen the party.

Tanjung Batu state assemblyman Datuk Hamisa Samat said Umno should be bold in upholding the law and regulations regardless whether it involves a party leader or member.

"If anyone goes against the party, then Umno must take bold action as this will convince the young to join the party," she said in a statement to mark the 68th Umno anniversary, here Saturday.

Hamisa, who is also Sabah Assistant Minister of Resource Development and Information Technology said Umno members should not be complacent with the achievement as the party's struggle was far from over.

"Umno must remain relevant at all times. Now is not the time to talk about unity but the time to work hard to preserve the unity," said the former Kalabakan Wanita Umno division chief.

Meanwhile, Batu Sapi Umno division chief Datuk Samsudin Yahya reminded the branches to be prepared and to strengthen strategies for the 14th general election.

"Use the spirit of Umno to strengthen our identity and continue to work hard for the sake of the party," said Samsudin, who is also the Sekong state assemblyman.
