TELUK INTAN, May 13 (Bernama) -- Puteri Umno will target young voters, especially women, to ensure victory for the Barisan Nasional (BN) candidate in the Teluk Intan parliamentary by-election on May 31.

"We are confident that with our experience, we will not have any problem guiding the by-election this time, and can perform better," its chief, Mas Ermieyati Samsudin told reporters after attending a special by-election briefing with Puteri Umno members here today.

The Teluk Intan parliamentary by-election is being held after the death of incumbent, Seah Leong Peng, 58, from cancer at the Universiti Malaya Medical Centre on May 1.

At the 13th General Election last year, DAP's Seah defeated Barisan Nasional candidate Datuk Mah Siew Keong and independent candidate K. Moralingam by a majority of 7,313 votes.

The Election Commission has fixed May 19 as nomination day. Balloting is on May 31.
