KUALA LUMPUR, May 16 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak visited the family of Sumiyah Sumadi to pay his last respects to the employee of the Prime Minister's Office (PMO), who died of complications from uterine cancer today.

Sumiyah, 56, was the administrative assistant to the Prime Minister's Press Secretary, Datuk Tengku Sariffuddin Tengku Ahmad, who is also the director of the PMO's Media Division.

She died at about 4.30pm at the Kuala Lumpur Hospital.

Najib, who had earlier attended a Labour Day gathering with Tenaga Nasional Berhad staff in Bangsar, arrived at the late Sumiyah's house in Kampung Baru at 6.40pm and extended his condolences to Sumiyah's brother-in-law, Asrori Saaban.

Asrori, when met by Bernama, said Najib described Sumiyah as a quiet person, but very dedicated to her job.

Also present to pay their last respects were Tengku Sariffuddin and the Prime Minister's Principal Private Secretary Datuk Azlin Alias.
