SINGAPORE, May 20 (Bernama) -- Yang di-Pertuan Agong Tuanku Abdul Halim Mu'adzam Shah Tuesday praised Malaysians who have succeeded in their endeavours in Singapore.

Tuanku Abdul Halim said their success had in a way contributed toward enhancing the bilateral relationship between Malaysia and Singapore.

"Such success has also improved the image of the country among Singaporeans," said Tuanku Abdul Halim who graced a dinner with Malaysians living in Singapore, hosted by the Malaysian High Commission in Singapore, with Raja Permaisuri Agong Tuanku Hajah Haminah, here today.

Also present was Malaysian High Commissioner to Singapore Datuk Husni Zai Yaacob, Deputy High Commissioner Kamsiah Kamaruddin and Works Minister Datuk Fadillah Yusof.

Tuanku Abdul Halim's visit to Singapore which started on Monday was to reciprocate a visit by Singapore President Tony Tan Keng Yam to Malaysia in September 2013.

The King who was also happy to hear that a Malaysia Association would be formed soon, hoped all Malaysians living in Singapore will support the formation of such an association, and at the same time advised those working in the republic to maintain the good name and image of the country.
