KUALA LUMPUR, May 21 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak says Malaysia's aspiration to create 3.3 million new jobs by 2020 is on track.

He said the country's employment rate had increased an astounding 17.81 per cent since the inception of the Economic Transformation Programme (ETP), which was launched in 2010.

"I thank the collective efforts of all Malaysians from the government and private sector for uniting to stimulate job creations," he said in his latest Facebook posting Wednesday.

He also shared the link to the ETP Annual Report 2013 which was unveiled last week.
