KUALA LUMPUR, May 23 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today called on all Malaysians to cheer on the national badminton team who are competing in the prestigious Thomas Cup tournament in New Dehli.

The Prime Minister also congratulated the squad for advancing to the semifinals after defeating Denmark in the quarterfinals yesterday.

"Let us stand firmly behind the Thomas Cup 2014 national team. Congratulations on your victory in the quarter-finals, forge ahead Malaysia," the Prime Minister said in his Twitter account.

Malaysia qualified for the semifinals of the Li Ning BWF Thomas Cup 2014 championship after defeating Denmark 3-1 in the quarterfinals and will be meeting Indonesia in the last four.

The other semifinal match is between China and Japan.
