KUALA LUMPUR, May 23 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said the government will continue to plan and implement various initiatives to enhance the quality of life of residents in Orang Asli villages nationwide.

In his latest Facebook posting, Najib said efforts by the government in developing the Orang Asli villages had brought joy to the community there.

"Praise to God, the government's effort in developing the Orang Asli villages had brought a thousand smile, like the one experienced by the Orang Asli community at Kampung Orang Asli Erong in Teluk Intan, Perak," he said.

Najib was referring to an exclusive report by the Malaysian National News Agency (Bernama), with the title 'The Exemplary Kampung Orang Asli Erong In Teluk Intan', Thursday.

The report is about Kampung Orang Asli Erong having become a modern village and equipped with various amenities, like tarred roads, electricity and water supply and a Permata kindergarten.
