KUALA LUMPUR, May 24 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak is proud that Kazakhstan considers Malaysia a modern and progressive Islamic nation.

"We must set an example for other Muslim nations," he said in his latest posting in Facebook here.

Najib, who left for home tonight after a successful three-day official visit to Kazakhstan, said the matter was discussed during his four-eye meeting with Kazakhstan President Nursultan Nazarbayev on Friday.

The Prime Minister said Nazarbayev was impressed with the ability and success of Malaysia in implementing Islamic principles and laws which show Islam is a religion which does not hinder development and that the accomplishments of Malaysia could be made a model and example.
