KUALA LUMPUR, May 31 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said he had asked the Malaysian Embassy in Turkey to extend the necessary assistance to PAS president Datuk Seri Abdul Hadi Awang, who is now at a hospital in Istanbul.

Najib said he contacted the embassy soon after being informed about Hadi this morning.

"Was informed Datuk Seri Hadi Awang was warded at a hospital in Istanbul. This morning, I contacted the embassy to ascertain Datuk Seri is given the necessary assistance," tweeted the prime minister.

Najib is currently in Beijing for a six-day official visit in conjunction with the 40th anniversary of diplomatic relations between China and Malaysia.

According to a news portal, Abdul Hadi, who is also Marang Member of Parliament, was admitted to the hospital at about 8.45pm yesterday (Malaysian time) after complaining of breathing problems.
