Following reports of a controversial forum against Christians at a public university yesterday, the DAP today challenged Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak to make a clear stand: whether he is with the moderates or the extremists.

" Is he for 1Malaysia or for the very antithesis of 1Malaysia?

"Why has Najib given free play to the merchants of hate, lies and falsehood... to tear the Malaysian nation asunder?" DAP adviser Lim Kit Siang (pic) said in a statement today.

He was referring to a forum on the use of the word Allah and Christology at Universiti Teknologi Mara (UiTM) yesterday which warned Muslims against the threat of Christianisation. The forum also belittled the Holy Bible as containing "tales".

Lim said that the sedition charge against Seputeh MP Teresa Kok yesterday also heralded Malaysia's move into a dark age, coinciding with Najib's second year as prime minister.

He said that just as Kok was charged with sedition for her "Onederful Chinese New Year" parody video, where her satire had included questioning the security in East Sabah.

"Kok was telling the truth, but that has become sedition in Najib's Malaysia as the prime minister has forgotten his promises to repeal the draconian and colonial Sedition Act," he said.

Lim added that Kok's prosecution was also a warning by Najib, that all critics, whether Pakatan Rakyat or the civil society, will face the possibility of being charged under sedition – not for telling lies and falsehoods or inciting hatred and conflict – but for legitimate criticism of the Barisan Nasional government for its failures and weaknesses.

He added that with these events to mark the start of a new year after the first anniversary of the May 5 polls, all the slogans of 1Malaysia, world's best democracy and government transformation programme should be consigned to the dustbins of history.

Lim also said that there appeared to be two movements under Najib: the Global Movement of Moderates, which is meant for national and international image, and the Movement of Racist and Religious Extremists, where full liberty is given to those wanting to spread their racist venom.

Lim called on Najib to make a clear stand on what he really stood for. – May 7, 2014.
