KUALA LUMPUR, June 12 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today congratulated and praised Maizura Mokhsein for her success at the recent United Asian Debating Championship (UADC) held in Singapore.

Maizura, 23, a final year law student from Universiti Teknologi Mara (UiTM), emerged as top debater at the prestigious competition held from May 25 to June 2.

The prime minister in his Twitter updates said : "UiTM student Maizura Mokhsein's triumph at the recent United Asian Debating Championship in Singapore is truly exemplary. Congratulations!".

Maizura defeated 360 other participants from universities across Asia by scoring top marks in all eight preliminary rounds.

The UADC is Asia's largest and most prestigious tournament, runs in the Asian Parliamentary format, which pitches teams of three against each other.
