KUALA LUMPUR, June 16 (Bernama) -- Yang di-Pertuan Agong Tuanku Abdul Halim Mu'adzam Shah today called on Muslims to unite to face the enemies of Islam who were constantly looking for ways to destroy the religion.

In his speech at the launching of the 56th International Quran reading competition, he said unless the people united, the success promised by Allah could not be attained.

"I call on the people to unite. Muslims must return to the basics and be prepared to face all obstacles and the threat of the enemy.

He also called on Muslims to return to the teachings of Islam whose people were of balanced character.

Tuanku Abdul Halim and the Raja Permaisuri Agong Tuanku Hajah Haminah's arrival were met by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak and his wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor as well as the Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Datuk Seri Jamil Khir Baharom.

The five-day competition sees the participation of 68 people from 52 countries in two categories.
