KUALA LUMPUR, June 16 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Razak today congratulated the national women's squash team and Datuk Lee Chong Wei for their winning of the 17th Asian Team Championships 2014 and Japan Open Super Series titles yesterday.

Expressing his appreciation for the spirit, prime minister said the success of the women's squash and Chong Wei exemplify 1Malaysia's culture of excellence.

"Well done to Datuk Lee Chong Wei for consolidating his world number one spot by clinching his 5th Japan Open title.

"In the world of squash, our team comprising Datuk Nicole David and Low Wee Wern made Malaysia proud by clinching our eighth title in the 17th Asian Team Championships," he said in his Facebook posting.

Besides a culture of excellence, the 1Malaysia concept also contains seven other values, the perseverance, acceptance, education, integrity, meritocracy, humility and loyalty.
