MELBOURNE, June 3 (Bernama) - Prime Minister Tony Abbott will meet with Indonesian President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono on Wednesday, as Australia seeks to further repair relations with Jakarta following spying revelations.

The meeting will take place on Indonesia's Batam Island, near Singapore, as Abbott flies to Europe for D-Day commemorations.

Abbott will spend about eight hours on the island.

The Australian Associated Press reports that the meeting comes amid an apparent thawing of relations between Canberra and Jakarta after revelations last year that President Susilo's phone, and that of his wife and inner circle, had been bugged by Australian spies in 2007.

Indonesia had also expressed concern over asylum boat turnbacks.
