After Barisan Nasional candidate Datuk Mah Siew Keong wrested back the Teluk Intan seat in the by-election on May 31, the prime minister today announced several goodies for the constituency.

Saying that Barisan was fulfilling its pledges, Datuk Seri Najib Razak unveiled several initiatives for Teluk Intan, including the building of 5,000 housing units under the affordable housing programme (PR1MA) and the setting up of a Universiti Pendidikan Sultan Idris (UPSI) branch.

Also in the pipeline are RM5 million for development projects in the area.

"BN maintains the philosophy and principle that the party fulfils its pledges and carries the hopes of the people in the area," Bernama quoted him as saying at the launching of PR1MA Teluk Intan.

Najib said 1,000 housing units would be built in a 202ha area as a start. – June 14, 2014.
