KUALA LUMPUR, July 14 (Bernama) -- Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin today urged Muslims in the country to fully understand the teachings of Islam as contained in the Quran and make them a way of life.

The Deputy Prime Minister said the teachings in the Quran could make Malaysia a respected Muslim country if they were fully understood and incorporated into the lives of the people.

"Let us improve our religious practices during the holy month of Ramadan while we ponder about the state of Muslims today," he said in his speech in conjunction with Nuzul al-Quran tomorrow.

Nuzul al-Quran refers to the time the first words of the Quran were revealed to Prophet Muhammad.

Muhyiddin said Muslims could continue being strong in the face of all tribulations if they fully understood and practiced the teachings of Islam.
