

People's Strong Support Gives Me Strength to Run the Country - Najib

Bernama

June 22, 2014

PEKAN, June 22 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said the strong support he received from the people has given him the strength to administer the country.

The prime minister said he could not administer the country if the people did not work together to maintain good relations with the various communities.

"The country's success, including in Pekan, is because we are together. I cannot work without your support.

"Your support has given me the strength to lead the country," he said when presenting Ramadan donations to mosques and surau in Pekan parliamentary constituency, here, Sunday.

The function was also attended by Pahang State Assembly Speaker Datuk Ishak Mohammad and the State Exco member for Felda Affairs, Datuk Abu Bakar Harun.

Najib said he was aided by good ties with the Yang di-Pertuan Agong, Tuanku Abdul Halim Mu'adzam Shah.

Tuanku Abdul Halim was also the Yang di-Pertuan Agong when his father Tun Abdul Razak Hussein was the prime minister.

"It is a piece of history of Malaysia. Becoming the Yang di-Pertuan Agong twice with a second generation as the prime minister is very difficult to achieve.

"This is what I call destiny."

On another note, Najib urged people with economic means to step up charity work in the month of Ramadan.

At the function, he also presented donation to 58 mosques and 151 surau in Pekan parliamentary constituency.

Each mosque received RM1,200 while each surau received RM800, additional RM200 from the amount last year, apart from dates, tea, milk and sugar.

-- BERNAMA

Copyright © 2014 BERNAMA

Source: <http://www.bernama.com/bernama/v7/newsindex.php?id=1048311>