SEPANG, June 24 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has dropped hints of an imminent cabinet reshuffle, saying that the launch of KLIA2 here Tuesday might be the last to be attended by Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein as acting Transport Minister.

"This might be your last official function as acting Transport Minister," he said in jest at the launch of KLIA2.

Hishammuddin also attended the launch of KLIA2, a terminal for low cost carriers.

The cabinet reshuffle has been the talk of the town as speculations are rife that Najib needed to carry out the exercise to accommodate leaders from MCA and Gerakan.
