KUALA LUMPUR, June 30 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said the people should be grateful to the Malaysian Armed Forces (ATM) veterans for their services and sacrifice to the country.

"The independence and freedom we Malaysians enjoy today, we owe it to our veterans. We often just thank our veterans for their service and sacrifice but it is often just not enough," he said in his latest Facebook update here today.

He was referring to the story, "Fifty Disabled Armed Forces Veterans Get RM500 One-off Special Aid", published by Bernama, yesterday

According to the article the disabled armed forces veterans in Terengganu received a one-off special aid of RM500 from the Malaysian Armed Forces Veterans Association (PVATM) in appreciation of their past contributions.
