KUALA LUMPUR, July 9 (Bernama) -- The Public Services Department (PSD) is offering all qualified Malaysian citizens an opportunity to apply for the Yang di-Pertuan Agong Scholarship to pursue a Master's Degree or PhD for the session 2014/2015.

In a statement today, the PSD said the scholarship was for study programmes in the field of Science and Technology, Economics, Law and Islamic Finance.

Applications opened on July 3, through the PSD website at <http://esilav2.jpa.gov.my> www.jpa.gov.my and will be closed on July 18.

Details of the scholarship can be obtained by contacting 03-88853546/3569/3571 or e-mail to ldp@jpa.gov.my.

The JPA scholarship programme was introduced in 2006 and is dedicated to students who have outstanding academic and non-academic performance (co-curriculum) to pursue their Master's and PhD, either within or outside the country.
