KUALA LUMPUR, July 9 (Bernama) -- The MCA Youth is collecting suggestions from the grassroots to identify prospective candidates to contest the 14th general election.

Its leader, Senator Chong Sin Woon said they must provide the best service to the party, known to local residents but not nominated by the leadership.

"By collecting the names of potential candidates, we can evaluate their performance to help the leadership pick the best candidates," he told reporters after chairing the MCA Youth Central Committee meeting at Wisma MCA yesterday.

He had instructed the heads of branches, divisions and the states to submit a list of potential candidates soon.
