Changing a menteri besar while he is still serving his term is normal, PAS information chief Datuk Mahfuz Omar said today, amid mounting calls within Selangor Pakatan Rakyat for Tan Sri Abdul Khalid Ibrahim's removal.

"If Khalid is to be replaced, it has to be done through consensus. I do not know if it will happen, but it is normal," Mahfuz (pic) told a press conference at PAS's headquarters today.

He said PAS was still discussing Khalid's removal, but at this point no name within PAS had been brought forward as a potential menteri besar candidate.

"How can you suggest a name when we have not even proposed anyone?" Mahfuz said, when a reporter asked him to confirm that Selangor PAS commissioner Iskandar Abdul Samad was eyeing the top position.

"I believe if we want to decide on this, we have to hold a meeting. But changing menteri besar is normal, even Terengganu changed its menteri besar," he added. – July 9, 2014.
