KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 10 (Bernama) -- Umno members have been reminded to preserve unity which has been the party's strength, and not just go after position and power which could bring about disunity.

Umno Youth chief Khairy Jamaluddin said unity was a key component of any party and needed for its strength to be passed on to the next generation.

"We have to go back to the fundamentals of the party's struggles, which are unity and cooperation between members, if we want to be successful. Young leaders have to play their role in preserving unity and learn from previous leaders," he said in his speech at the opening of the Titiwangsa Umno Delegates meeting here Sunday.

Khairy said the party would be divided if there were members who sought power and position purely for personal gain.

"We are not a party that (only) seeks position and personal gains in politics," he said.

Khairy also urged Umno members to be united in maintaining the party's strength as it was a major component of Barisan Nasional (BN).
