KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 4 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today said he is saddened by the hundreds of lives lost in the Yunnan, China earthquake yesterday.

"The Malaysian people stand in solidarity with the grieving victims," Najib said in his latest tweet today.

At least 380 people were killed after a magnitude 6.3 earthquake hit southwest China's mountainous Yunnan province Sunday.

The quake, in a remote part of Yunnan province, caused thousands of buildings, including schools to collapse.
