KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 8 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak conveyed his condolences to the families and friends of Britons, Neil Dalton, and Aidan Brunger who were stabbed to death in Kuching on Wednesday.

"My condolences to families and friends of Britons Neil Dalton and Aidan Brunger. Those responsible for their deaths must be brought to justice," he said in his Twitter update, late Friday night.

The students were believed to be stabbed to death after they were involved in an argument with four local residents at a cafe near their hotel at about 4am.

Dalton, 23, and Brunger, 22, who were on an exchange programme with one of the hospitals in Kuching, were due to end their three-month stint there.
