KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 23 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said it was still not too late to organise the Hari Raya Aidilfitri open house.

Najib, who held the Aidilfitri Open House at the Pekan Parliamentary level Saturday, hoped the month of Syawal this time brought happiness although the nation was still mourning following the tragedy that befell the Malaysia Airlines (MAS) flight MH17.

"Remember those who could not celebrate the Syawal month and we pray that they will be placed among the believers. Insya-Allah.

"I thank the people of Pahang for this moderate and yet cheerful gathering," said Najib in his latest Facebook entry.

Among the dignitaries who attended the event were the Tengku Mahkota of Pahang, Tengku Abdullah Sultan Ahmad Shah and Tengku Puan Pahang Tengku Azizah Aminah Maimunah Iskandariah.
