PETALING JAYA, Aug 27 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin tonight left for Ankara to represent the Malaysian government at the inauguration of Turkey's new president, scheduled for Thursday.

The special aircraft carrying Muhyiddin, who is accompanied on the working visit to Turkey by his wife Puan Sri Norainee Abdul Rahman, took off from the Royal Malaysian Air Force base in Subang at 10.20pm.

The deputy prime minister is scheduled to leave Ankara for Malaysia after the inauguration ceremony followed by the official dinner Thursday night itself.

After 11 years as prime minister, Recep Tayyip Erdogan is set to become Turkey's first directly-elected president.

President-elect Erdogan's inauguration follows his victory in the Aug 10, 2014 presidential poll, having secured 52 per cent of the vote at the ballot box.
