SINGAPORE, Aug 27 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak arrived here Wednesday, for a one-day working visit to officiate the opening of Malaysia's first agrobazaar outlet overseas.

Najib, who was accompanied by wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, arrived at the Changi International Airport at 5.15pm.

Also present to welcome him were Malaysian High Commissioner to Singapore Datuk Husni Zai Yaacob and wife, Datin Norshiha Hasbullah.

In a statement earlier, Singapore's Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA) said Singapore Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong was invited by Najib to jointly officiate the opening of the agrobazaar in Singapore later in the evening.

MFA said following the launch of the agrobazaar, the Singapore prime minister and wife would host Najib and Rosmah to a tour of the newly-completed Singapore Sports Hub, followed by dinner.

At the Malaysia-Singapore Leaders' Retreat in Kuala Lumpur on April 7, this year, Najib had said the agrobazaar was an initiative by the Malaysian Agriculture and Agro-Based Industry Ministry and Federal Agricultural Marketing Authority or Fama.

The agrobazaar is located at Lots 37, 39, 41 and 43 Sultan Gate and will feature a selection of fresh fruit and agro-based products from Malaysia.
