KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 27 (Bernama) -- With immediate effect, MIC president Datuk Seri G. Palanivel is taking over as chairman of Perak MIC.

Palanivel, who takes over from Datuk R. Ganesan as the state party chief said he would hold a meeting with division heads in Perak soon.

He reminded that previously, he was the Perak MIC chief before handing over the post to Ganesan.

"After taking charge as state chairman, I would often hold meetings with the state, constituency and branch leaders," he said in a statement which was posted at the party's official website Wednesday.

He added the branch, divisional and state-level elections would be conducted after some amendments made on the party's by-laws.

Palanivel, who is also natural resources and environment minister, said the MIC Central Working Committee would make the final decision on the modification on regulations prescribed.
