KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 30 (Bernama) -- Malaysians, in reaction to Prime Minister Datuk Seri Mohd Najib Tun Razak's Merdeka message today, said they felt inclined to heed his call for the sake of prosperity and progress in the country.

They believe that every individual should play a role in making Malaysia a country that prioritises solidarity among the communities regardless of race and religion.

Social activist Tan Sri Lee Lam Thye said patriotism among the communities should be strengthened to ensure peace and harmony in the country.

"As citizens, we should hold fast to the 1Malaysia concept and moderation, because it is also one way of playing our role as Malaysians," he said.

He said this while commenting on Najib's 57th Independence Day message.
