KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 4 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak, Thursday extended his best wishes to the pupils who will sit for the Primary School Achievement Text (UPSR) for three days from next Tuesday.

The prime minister said teachers and parents would be more nervous than the pupils as the examination drew near.

"God willing, everyone will pass," he said in his latest post on Twitter.

A total of 473,175 pupils have registered to sit for the UPSR from Sept 9 to 11 at 8,299 centres in the country.
