SHAH ALAM, Sept 5 (Bernama) -- The Selangor palace has received the names of three potential candidates for the post of menteri besar from PAS, according to a palace source.

The source, however, declined to reveal the names.

A source close to the state government disclosed that PAS had sent three names to the palace.

"The correspondence was handled personally by PAS president Datuk Seri Abdul Hadi Awang," said the source.

The media had reported yesterday that Abdul Hadi had sent the names of three Selangor state executive councillors as candidates for the post.
