GEORGE TOWN, Sept 7 (Bernama) -- DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng today acknowledged that PAS were in turmoil after PAS President Datuk Seri Abdul Hadi Awang alleged that Parti Keadilan Rakyat (PKR) President Datin Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail was not eligible for the post of Selangor Menteri Besar.

Lim said what was going on in PAS was an internal problem.

"Therefore it will not be right for me to comment because I will be deemed to have interfered in the affairs of PAS," he told reporters, here today when asked to comment on Abdul Hadi's claim that Dr Wan Azizah was not a suitable candidate for the post of Selangor Menteri Besar.

Abdul Hadi had during a dialogue in Kuala Terengganu alleged that PAS' decision to reject Dr Wan Azizah was not due to gender but rather her inability to be an able leader.

The PAS President had said that the candidate for the post of Menteri Besar must fulfill the necessary criteria needed.

Lim said Dr Wan Azizah was an experienced person who had successfully taken over and led the party when Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim was sent to prison in the year 2000.

"Give her (Wan Azizah) a chance to show her capability," he said.
