JOHOR BARU, A 57-year-old Member of Parliament from Johor is being investigated by the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) in Kuala Lumpur over corruption allegations.

A spokesperson with MACC however denied claims that the lawmaker was arrested.

Meanwhile sources told The Rakyat Post that the MP was being investigated by the anti-graft agency for allegedly abusing his position, adding that the investigation is linked to the MP's post as a director of a GLC.

Rumors had been circulating that the MP, was arrested by an MACC team from Putrajaya to facilitate investigations into alleged corrupt activities in a government-linked company (GLC).
