KOTA BELUD, Sabah has been enjoying a balanced development and Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak says it is in return of the people's continuous loyalty to Barisan Nasional and Umno.

"We want our hardcore supporters to continue benefiting from these development projects and I'll ensure to bring changes to the landscape in Sabah whenever I come to the state," he assured the people, followed by thunderous applause, today.

Speaking to thousands who came for the ground-breaking ceremony of the Kota Belud People's Housing Programme at Kampung Pirasan, here, Najib said he was not worried as he believed the people would continue to support the ruling coalition.

"For as long as the (BN) component parties and you (the people) support me, I will continue to do the best for you."

He reiterated that Sabah had always been BN's fixed deposit (FD), despite attempts by certain quarters to "dilute its FD".

"But thankfully, we have a lot of strong 'warriors' who are willing to sacrifice themselves in the struggle. They have been very strong-hearted and I believe they will not fall and fail the people," said Najib, referring to Sabah's local leaders, led by Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman.

Urban Development, Housing and Local Government Minister Datuk Abdul Rahman Dahlan said apart from the 900 units here, another 100 units would also be built on the Mantanani Island.

The RM160 million housing project featuring three-bedroom units is expected to be completed by December 2017, complete with basic facilities such as surau, kindergarten, multipurpose hall, playground and shop lots.
