PUTRAJAYA, Aug 13 — Umno secretary-general Datuk Seri Tengku Adnan Mansor said today he will seek for a court dismissal of PKR's suit on the RM2.6 billion donation filed against him, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak, 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB) and the Election Commission (EC).

He told the media today that he was aware of the suit being filed, and that he would seek to get it struck out in court as soon as possible.

"They cannot sue us that way, just on a whim," he said at his open house here today.

"We will look into it, and we will try to get it striked out."

The suit accusing the four defendants of alleged electoral offences over the RM2.6 billion donation found in Najib's accounts was filed yesterday at the Kuala Lumpur High Court through lawyer Tommy Thomas.

The suit's plaintiffs include PKR's jailed leader Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim, vice-presidents Nurul Izzah Anwar and Chua Tian Chang (Tian Chua), former secretary-general Datuk Saifuddin Nasution Ismail and Harapan Baru (HB) member Dr Dzulkefly Ahmad.
