KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 22 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has advised Malaysians traveling home after the Chinese New Year holidays to drive carefully.

In his posting on his Facebook account tonight, Najib said: "I believe that many are now on their way home after the Chinese New Year holidays.

"Drive carefully so that you will arrive at your destination safely."

Traffic flow on several major highways experience congestion since this afternoon as Malaysians begin their journey home after the long break.

Among the highways affected were the North-South Expressway (NSE) from the north to Kuala Lumpur, and the East Coast Expressway (ECE).
