KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 10 (Bernama) -- Mohd Saiful Bukhari Azlan, former aide of Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim today said that the Federal Court's decision to uphold the five-year jail sentence imposed on his ex-boss for sodomising him seven years ago proved that he was right.

In his latest blog posting at <http://mohdsaifulbukhari.blogspot.com>, Mohd Saiful said he and his family totally respected the court's decision.

"Seven years of prayers, steadfastness and patience, today the Federal Court unanimously decided that my allegations are true and that I'm a credible witness," he said.

The Federal Court today dismissed Anwar's final appeal against his conviction and jail sentence for sodomising Mohd Saiful at Unit 11-5-1 Kondominium Desa Damansara, Jalan Setiakasih in Bukit Damansara, between 3.10 pm and 4.30 pm on June 26, 2008.

Chief Justice Tun Arifin Zakaria, who led a five-member panel, delivered the judgement and upheld the five-year jail term imposed by the Court of Appeal on March 7, last year.

Mohd Saiful said ever since he lodged the police report on the incident seven years ago, all he wanted as the complainant and the citizen of the country was for his complaint against Anwar to be investigated and fairly judged, nothing more than that.

"As an imperfect servant of Allah, I'm only discharging my duties, to uphold the truth so that I will not be questioned in the hereafter later," he said.

In the posting, Mohd Saiful also expressed his gratitude to all quarters who had been with him, directly or indirectly, throughout the trial.
