KUALA LUMPUR, Feb 18 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak received a courtesy call from former Indonesian President Susilo Bambang Yudhoyono at his official residence Seri Perdana in Putrajaya Wednesday.

"We talked about various matters, and he also extended an invitation asking me to attend the Global Green Growth Summit which will be held in July. God willing I can make it," Najib said on his Facebook Wednesday night.

Susilo is now the chairman of the Global Green Growth Institute, an international organisation dedicated to supporting and promoting strong, inclusive and sustainable economic growth in developing countries and emerging economies.

The Summit is scheduled to be held in Bali, Indonesia.

Also present at the meeting were Najib's wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor and Susilo's wife Ani Yudhoyono.
