KUALA LUMPUR, March 10 (Bernama) -- The Malaysia-Singapore Coffee Shop Proprietors' General Association has launched its second series of the 'Malaysia 100 Best Coffee Shops' book to introduce selected restaurants and coffee shops in the country as tourist attractions.

The association's president Ho Su Mong said it was hoped the book would help introduce the traditional cuisine of various races in the country to tourists.

"It is also aims to help increase revenue of coffee shop operators in this country," he said at the launching ceremony by Minister in the Prime Minister's Department, Datuk Dr Wee Ka Siong, here, today.

The 250-page book comes in Chinese and English versions and can be obtained at the 100 coffee shops listed in the book and tourism information centres across the country.

The first series was published on 2012.
