KUALA LUMPUR, March 14 (Bernama) -- Activist Adam Adli Abdul Halim and another individual, Mandeep Singh were arrested to assist in investigations on the #KitaLawan rally held today at the Sogo shopping complex, here.

Kuala Lumpur police chief Datuk Tajuddin Md Isa said they were detained under under Section 9(5) of the Peaceful Assembly Act 2012 and under Section 143 of the Penal Code at about 6 pm.

According to an entry in the rally facebook page, @Kita Lawan, both activists were detained at the complex and were now being held at the Jinjang Police Station lockup.

The rally was held to show support to Opposition Leader, Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim who is serving a five-year prison sentence for sodomy.
