KOTA BAHARU, March 19 (Bernama) -- Kelantan Barisan Nasional (BN) will continue to be consistent with its decision to support a private member's bill on hudud which will be tabled by any PAS member of Parliament in the Dewan Rakyat after this.

State BN chairman Datuk Seri Mustapa Mohamed said this was a Kelantan BN stand especially after 12 Kelantan State Assemblymen from Umno unanimously stated their support for the Kelantan Syariah Criminal Code 11 1993 (Amendment 2015) which was approved in the Kelantan State Assembly, which ended today.

"We (Kelantan BN Members of Parliament) are consistent with our stand all these while. (However), this is our stand at (Kelantan) state level only, we do not know how it is in the other states (under BN)," he told a media conference after attending the State Assembly sitting at Kompleks Kota Darulnaim here.

The Kelantan State Assembly today approved the Kelantan Syariah Criminal Code 11 1993 (Amendment 2015) which is only applicable to normal Muslims when it is implemented in the state after all 44 State Assembly members unanimously approved the bill.

History was created when all 12 Kelantan State Assemblymen from BN backed the bill which was tabled by the PAS State Government under Menteri Besar Datuk Ahmad Yakob.

Commenting on BN component parties especially from among non-Muslims who opposed the bill, Mustapa said maybe there were those who were unhappy with Kelantan BN's move to back the bill.
