BOAO, (Hainan, China), March 27 (Bernama) -- China's President Xi Jinping expressed his appreciation for Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak's presence at Boao Forum for Asia 2015 (BFA) despite his busy schedule.

Xi said he was touched that the Malaysian Prime Minister took the effort to come to Boao despite his daughter's wedding reception on Saturday.

"It goes to show Malaysia's commitment in participating in the forum, as well as its commitments to the bilateral relations," he said during the bilateral meeting with Najib here, Friday.

The bilateral meeting between both leaders is the fourth since Najib became prime minister.

Xi said the bilateral relations between Beijing and Putrajaya is at the highest in the last four decades and he hoped it would continue to bring good results.

The China President also took the opportunity to congratulate Najib on his daughter's wedding.

Also present during the bilateral meeting was Malaysia's Ambassador to China Datuk Zainuddin Yahya and Special Envoy of the Prime Minister to China, Tan Sri Ong Ka Ting.
