KUALA LUMPUR, March 28 (Bernama) -- The prime minister should not be pushed into making a statement on the implementation of hudud in Kelantan, says Urban Wellbeing, Housing and Local Government Minister Datuk Abdul Rahman Dahlan.

He said Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak should be allowed to listen to all views before making a statement as it was an important decision for the country.

"I don't think he (Najib) should rush into making a statement based on what he feels as he must also listen to views from the people, including those in Sabah and Sarawak, NGOs (non-governmental organisations), non-malays and the ulama," he told reporters after delivering a keynote speech at What Youth Should Know conference here Saturday.

As for the Cabinet, he said the matter was being discussed where all members had contributed their views and ideas on hudud.

Earlier in his speech, Abdul Rahman said although there were some issues going on in the country, no one should allow the voices of extremism to prevail and that voices of moderation must be heard.
