IPOH, March 4 (Bernama) -- The Perak government views seriously the suspected involvement of its civil servant in the so-called IS militant group, says Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Dr Zambry Abd Kadir.

He however, said that he had yet to receive full report about the arrest of the civil servant and would ask for it from Perak police chief Datuk Osman Salleh.

"I view seriously the involvement of the state government's civil servant in the IS. Appropriate legal action should be taken against the suspect," Zambry told a press conference after chairing the state executive council meeting in Ipoh, Wednesday.

He was commenting on the arrest of three individuals, including a woman, for suspected involvement in the IS group's activities in Johor, Perak and Kuala Lumpur recently.

The civil servant from Perak was said to be involved in contributing funds to Malaysians who wished to join the IS in Syria.
